

THE WEEK IN BRIEF--Monday morning will open the Workshop with registration, introductions of faculty and students, and assignment to rooms. After lunch, Workshop members will make a tour of Columbia. At 6:30 p.m., dinner will be served at the Daniel Boone Hotel. Speakers at the dinner will be H. R. Long, Dr. Francis English, and a Chamber of Commerce representative, who will fill in the background and history of Columbia.

Tuesday morning will be organization for the week's operations. On Tuesday afternoon, members will start off for first contacts with the Columbians with whom they will be working for the rest of the week. On Wednesday morning, the work will start in earnest. From that time on it will be a matter of actual photography, bull sessions and questions in the evening.

WHO'S WHO IN THE PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOP

Rus Arnold, APSA, is probably the foremost authority on flash photography in this country. He is author of the book "Flash Photography" as well as a number of magazine articles on the subject (including one in this month's POP PHOTO). For many years he toured the country lecturing to photo groups. At present he is in the commercial illustration field.
